

Hendry 2014 Zinfandel Blocks 7 & 22

93

This is a delicate spicy wine despite its robust ripeness and brawny underside. Compost and brambly bush combine with blackberry and an undeniably delicious streak of white pepper, making for a complex, complete wine that's enjoyable from start to finish. FEBRUARY, 2018

The Hendry family farms zinfandel at their ranch west of the city of Napa, including these two blocks planted with clone 2, one in 1975, the other in 1995. Aged in French oak (about one-third new), the 2014 is rich and finely integrated, a dark-fruited zin with savory mineral notes. It's brightened by warm spice in the finish, lasting on a clean line. CA 2/11/17

"...a nice, attractive, briary, but classic Zinfandel..."

The 2014 Zinfandel Blocks 7&22 spent 15 months in French oak and is a nice, attractive, briary, but classic Zinfandel, with pepper, earth, spice and briary red and black fruits. It is medium-bodied, zesty and carries 15.3 natural alcohol well. The color is dark ruby and the wine should drink well for 3-4 years. WINE ADVOCATE, Issue 228
